401(k) Savings Retirement Plan

The 401(k) Savings Retirement Plan is administered through ADP Retirement Services. Epitec matches 25% per dollar of employee contribution up to the first 6% of your gross wages. You can elect from Fidelity investments and investment models. We also offer a Roth IRA deferral option (post tax). Eligibility and participation will be effective on the first day of the month following your hire date. For example, if you are hired on August 17th, your eligibility date would be September 1st.

Holidays

You can decline holiday pay in favor of a higher pay rate. You can elect holidays recognized by both Epitec and the Client up to a max of 10 holidays dependent upon what the Client observes. For example, if the Client only observes the 6 national holidays, 6 would be the max you can elect.

Paid Time Off ("PTO")

PTO time is an accrued benefit and it can be negotiated as part of your tailored compensation package. You can always decline PTO time in favor of a higher pay rate. You are eligible to use PTO after three (3) full calendar months of employment.

The annual PTO accrual amounts available are listed below:

- 1 week PTO accrue PTO at .0192 per hour
- 2 weeks' PTO accrue PTO at .0384 per hour
- 3 weeks' PTO accrue PTO at .0576 per hour

The maximum rate a consultant can accrue PTO at is .0576 per hour, which is 3 weeks of PTO per year.

Life and AD&D Coverage

Each full-time employee is offered $15,000 of employer paid Basic Life/Accidental Death and Dismemberment. You may purchase optional Life & AD&D insurance in increments of $10,000 up to a max of $200,000. Spouse and dependent coverage is also available.

Voluntary Short-Term & Long-Term Disability Coverage

Epitec offers short and long term disability coverage on a voluntary basis. Rates, age-bands and calculation tables can be found in our summary plan description.

Voluntary Life Coverage

Epitec offers voluntary life insurance coverage for you, your spouse, or child(ren) on a voluntary basis. Rates, age-bands and calculation tables can be found in our summary plan description.
